Retailers are beginning their 'back to school sales'. This is a reminder; it is time to start collecting items for "School Kits" and "Personal Care kits" that will be sent to Lutheran World Relief later this fall. LWR has requested NO fine-tooth combs, only the wide-tooth. Supplying the items is a project of our entire congregation. The circles will sort and pack these items for shipment. Pick up a green sheet that lists all the items needed and pick up one or several items. There is a tote on the display case in the back of the sanctuary for these items.

Garden abundance: Check the Pop refrigerator in room #2 (across from the office) and help yourself. If you have extra to share you are welcome to bring it.

Please take a minute to sign the clipboards located in the pews. Visitors are asked to include your complete mailing address. Please add your current phone # if you have made a change.

Remember the Shopping Cart in the back of the church. There is room for many items for the Good Samaritan Center.

#521 O Day of Rest and Gladness

1. O day of rest and gladness, O day of joy and light,
O balm for care and sadness, most beautiful, most bright;
On you the high and lowly, through ages joined in tune,
Sing, "Holy, holy, holy." to the great God triune.
2. On you, all earth's creation, the light first had its birth;
On you, for our salvation, Christ rose from depths of earth;
On you, our Lord victorious the Spirit sent from heav'n;
And thus on you, most glorious, a threefold light was giv'n.
3. Today on weary nations the heav'nly manna falls;
To holy convocations the silver trumpet calls,
Where gospel light is glowing with pure and radiant beams
And living water flowing with soul refreshing streams.
4. New graces ever gaining from this our day of rest,
We reach the rest remaining to spirits of the blest.
We sing to you our praises, O Father, Spirit, Son;
The church its voice upraises to you, blest Three in One.

#487 What Feast of Love

1. What feast of love, what banquet come from heaven?
What food of everlasting life, what gracious gift is given?
This, this is Christ the king, the bread come down from heaven.
Oh, taste and see and sing! How sweet the mamma given!
2. What light of truth is offered here, what covenant from heaven?
What hope of everlasting life, what wondrous word is given?
This, this is Christ the king, the sun came down from heaven.
Oh, see and hear and sing! The Word of God is given!
3. What wine of love is offered here, what crimson drink from heaven?
What stream of everlasting life, what precious blood is given!
This, this is Christ the king, the sweetest wine of heaven.
Oh, taste and see and sing! The Son of God is given!

#467 We Place upon Your Table, Lord

1. We place upon your table, Lord, where you by grace have bid us dine,
These tokens of our daily work, the food of life, the bread and wine.
2. Within these simple things there lie the height and depth of human life;
Our pain and tears, our thoughts and toils, our hopes and fears, our joy and strife.
3. Accept them, Lord, they come from you; we take them humbly from your hand;
Put these your gifts to higher use; the holy meal that you command.

#477 I Received the Living God

Refrain: I received the living God, and my heart is full of joy.

I received the living God, and my heart is full of joy.

1. Jesus said; I am the bread, kneaded long to give you life,
You who will partake of me need not ever fear to die. Refrain:

2. Jesus said; I am the way, and my Father longs for you;
So I come to bring you home to be one with us anew. Refrain:

3. Jesus said; I am the truth; come and follow close to me.
You will know me in your heart, and my word shall make you free. Refrain:

4. Jesus said; I am the life, far from whom no thing can grow;
But receive this living bread, and my Spirit you shall know. Refrain:

Exodus 16:2-4, 9-15

The whole congregation of the Israelites complained against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness. The Israelites said to them, 'If only we had died by the hand of the Lord in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the fleshpots and ate our fill of bread; for you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger.'

Then the Lord said to Moses, 'I am going to rain bread from heaven for you, and each day the people shall go out and gather enough for that day. In that way I will test them, whether they will follow my instruction or not.'

Then Moses said to Aaron, 'Say to the whole congregation of the Israelites, "Draw near to the Lord, for he has heard your complaining." ' And as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the Israelites, they looked towards the wilderness, and the glory of the Lord appeared in the cloud. The Lord spoke to Moses and said, 'I have heard the complaining of the Israelites; say to them, "At twilight you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall have your fill of bread; then you shall know that I am the Lord your God." '

In the evening quails came up and covered the camp; and in the morning there was a layer of dew around the camp. When the layer of dew lifted, there on the surface of the wilderness was a fine flaky substance, as fine as frost on the ground. When the Israelites saw it, they said to one another, 'What is it?' For they did not know what it was. Moses said to them, 'It is the bread that the Lord has given you to eat.'

Ephesians 4:1-16

I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beg you to lead a life worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in all.

But each of us was given grace according to the measure of Christ's gift. Therefore it is said,

'When he ascended on high he made captivity itself a captive;
he gave gifts to his people.'

(When it says, 'He ascended', what does it mean but that he had also descended into the lower parts of the earth? He who descended is the same one who ascended far above all the heavens, so that he might fill all things.) The gifts he gave were that some would be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until all of us come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to maturity, to the measure of the full stature of Christ. We must no longer be children, tossed to and fro and blown about by every wind of doctrine, by people's trickery, by their craftiness in deceitful scheming. But speaking the truth in love, we must grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and knitted together by every ligament with which it is equipped, as each part is working properly, promotes the body's growth in building itself up in love.

Psalm 78:23-29

- ²³ Yet he commanded the skies above,
and opened the doors of heaven;
- ²⁴ he rained down on them manna to eat,
and gave them the grain of heaven.
- ²⁵ Mortals ate of the bread of angels;
he sent them food in abundance.
- ²⁶ He caused the east wind to blow in the heavens,
and by his power he led out the south wind;
- ²⁷ he rained flesh upon them like dust,
winged birds like the sand of the seas;
- ²⁸ he let them fall within their camp,
all around their dwellings.
- ²⁹ And they ate and were well filled,
for he gave them what they craved.
