#600 Out of the Depths I Cry to You

1. Out of the depths I cry to you; O Lord God, hear me calling.
Incline your ear to my distress in spite of my rebelling.
Do not regard my sinful deeds.
Send me the grace my spirit needs; without it I am nothing.

2. All things you send are full of grace; you crown our lives with favor.
All our good works are done in vain without our Lord and Savior.
We praise you for the gift of faith;
you save us from the grip of death; our lives are in your keeping.

3. In you alone, O God, we hope, and not in our own merit.
We rest our fears in your good word; uphold our fainting spirit.
Your promised mercy is my fort, my comfort, and my strong support;
I wait for it with patience.

4. My soul is waiting for you, Lord, as one who longs for morning;
no watcher waits with greater hope than I for your returning.
I hope as Israel in the Lord, who sends redemption through the Word.
Praise God for grace and mercy!

#656 Blest Be the Tie That Binds

1. Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love;
The unity of heart and mind is like to that above.

2. Before our Father's throne we pour our ardent prayers;
Our fears, our hopes our aims are one, our comforts and our cares.

3. We share our mutual woes, our mutual burdens bear,
And often for each other flows the sympathizing tear.

4. From sorrow, toil, and pain, and sin we shall be free;
And perfect love and friendship reign through all eternity.

 # 606 Our Father, We Have Wandered

1. Our Father, we have wandered and hidden from your face;
In foolishness have squandered your legacy of grace.
But, now, in exile dwelling, we rise with fear and shame,
As, distant but compelling, we hear you call our name.

2. And now at length discerning the evil that we do,
Behold us, Lord, returning with hope and trust to you.
In haste you come to meet us and home rejoicing bring,
In gladness there to greet us with calf and robe and ring.

3. O Lord of all the living, both banished and restored,
Compassionate, forgiving, and ever-caring Lord,
Grant now that our transgressing, our faithlessness may cease.
Stretch out your hand in blessing, in pardon, and in peace.

#609 Chief of Sinners Though I Be

1. Chief of sinners though I be, Jesus shed his blood for me,
Died that I might live on high, lives that I might never die.
As the branch is to the vine, I am his, and he is mine.

2. Oh, the height of Jesus' love! Higher than the heav'ns above,
Deeper than the depths of sea, lasting as eternity.
Love that found me – wondrous thought-found me when I sought him not.

3. Only Jesus can impart balm to heal the wounded heart,
Peace that flows from sin forgiv'n, joy that lifts the soul to heav'n,
Faith and hope to walk with God in the way that Enoch trod.

4. Chief of sinners though I be, Christ is all in all to me;
All my wants to him are known, all my sorrows are his own.
He sustains the hidden life safe with him from earthly strife.

5. O my Savior, help afford by your Spirit and your word!
When my wayward heart would stray, keep me in the narrow way;
Grace in time of need supply while I live and when I die.

#608 Softly and Tenderly

1. Softly and tenderly Jesus is calling, Calling for you and for me.
See on the portals he's waiting and watching, Watching for you and for me.
Refrain: Come home, come home! You who are weary, come home.
Earnestly, tenderly, Jesus is calling, calling, "O sinner, come home."

2, Why should we tarry when Jesus is pleading, Pleading for you and for me?
Why should we linger and heed not his mercies, Mercies for you and for me?
Refrain:

3. Oh, for the wonderful love he has promised, Promised for you and for me!
Though we have sinned, he has mercy and pardon, Pardon for you and for me.
Refrain:
