#712 Lord, Whose Love in Humble Service

1. Lord, whose love in humble service bore the weight of human need,
Who upon the cross, forsaken, worked your mercy's perfect deed;
We, your servants, bring the worship not of voice alone, but heart;
consecrating to your purpose ev'ry gift which you impart.

2. Still your children wander homeless; still the hungry cry for bread;
Still the captives long for freedom; still in grief we mourn our dead.
As you Lord, in deep compassion healed the sick and freed the soul,
By your Spirit send your power to our world to make it whole.

3. As we worship, grant us vision, till your love's revealing light
In its height and depth and greatness dawns upon our quickened sight,
Making known the needs and burdens your compassion bids us bear, stirring us to ardent service, your abundant life to share.

4. Called by worship to your service, forth in your dear name we go,
To the child, the youth, the aged, love in living deeds to show;
Hope and health, good-will and comfort, counsel, aid, and peace we give,
That your servants, Lord, in freedom may your mercy know and live.

#713 O God of Every Nation

1. O God of ev'ry nation, of ev'ry race and land,
Redeem you whole creation with your almighty hand;
Where hate and fear divide us and bitter threats are hurled,
In love and mercy guide us and heal our strife-torn world.

2. From search for wealth and power and scorn of truth and eright,
From trust in bombs that shower destruction through the night,
From price of race and station and blindness to your way,
Deliver ev'ry nation, eternal God, we pray.

3. Lord, strengthen all who labor that all may find release
From fear of rattling saber, from dread of war's increase;
When hope and courage falter, Lord, let your voice be heard;
With faith that none can alter, your servants undergird.

4. Keep bright in us the vision of days when war shall cease,
When hatred and division give way to love and peace,
Till dawns the morning glorious when truth and love shall reign,
And Christ shall rule victorious o'er all the world's domain.

#644 Although I Speak with Angel's Tongue

1. Although I speak with angel's tongue,
my faith, my knowledge all surpass, but have no love,
my gifts are vain as clanging gong or blaring brass.

2. For love is patient, love is kind,
and never vain with boasting pride; love bears all things,
all things endures. All things must end; love will abide.

3. For now we peer at darkened glass;
Our visions end; our tongues all cease. In part we know,
In part now see: the we will see love face to face.

4. The gifts are many, the Body one,
And into one are all baptized. Beloved, share one heart,
One mind, one hope, one faith, one love in Christ.

#686 We Give Thee but Thine Own

1. We give thee but thine own, whate'er the gift may be;
All that we have is thine alone, a trust, O Lord, from thee

2. May we thy bounties thus as stewards true receive, and gladly, as thou bless-est us, to thee our first-fruits give.

3. The captive to release, to God the lost to bring,
To teach the way of life and peace – it is a Christ-like thing.

4. And we believe thy word, though dim our faith may be;
what-e'er we do for thine O Lord, we do it unto thee.

#834 Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise

Immortal, invisible, God only wise,
In light inaccessible hid from our eyes,
Most blessed, most glorious the Ancient of Days,
Almighty, victorious, thy great name we praise!

2. Unresting, unhasting, and silent as light, nor wanting, nor wasting, thou rulest in might;
Thy justice like mountains high soaring above
Thy clouds which are fountains of goodness and love.

3. To all, life thou givest, to both great and small;
In all life thou livest the true life of all;
We blossom and flourish like leaves on the tree,
And wither and perish, but naught changeth thee.

4. Thou reignest in glory; thou dwellest in light;
Thine angels adore thee, all veiling their sight;
All laud we would render; oh, help us to see
'tis only the splendor of light hideth thee!
